

Application to extend a review of anti-dumping measures to include revocation

APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 269ZCA OF THE CUSTOMS ACT 1901 TO EXTEND A REVIEW OF ANTI-DUMPING MEASURES TO INCLUDE REVOCATION

I hereby request, in accordance with section 269ZCA of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act)¹, that the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission extend a review of anti-dumping measures in respect of the goods the subject of this application to include revocation.

I consider that there are reasonable grounds for determining that the anti-dumping measures are no longer warranted. The measure I consider should be revoked is:

- ☐ the dumping duty notice
- ☐ the countervailing duty notice
- ☐ the undertaking

The revocation review is in relation to:

- ☐ a particular exporter (if so provide name and country details);
- ☐ exporters generally

I believe that the information contained in this application:

- provides reasonable grounds to extend the review of the anti-dumping measure; and
- is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Required information

1. Provide details of the name, street and postal address, of the applicant seeking the continuation.
2. Provide details of the name of a contact person, including their position, telephone number and e-mail address.
3. Name other parties supporting this application.
4. Describe your interest as an affected party (eg are you concerned with the exportation of the goods, the importation of the goods, or part of the Australian industry, or acting on behalf of the Government of an exporting country).
5. Provide details of the current anti-dumping measure(s) the subject of this review application, including:
 - tariff classification
 - the countries or companies specified; and
 - date of publication of the notice or acceptance of the undertaking.
6. Provide evidence that you consider may satisfy the commission that there are reasonable grounds for determining that the anti-dumping measures are no longer warranted.

In the guidelines, refer to the part concerning 'Anti-Dumping Measures are No Longer Warranted' as part of preparing your response. If you consider anti-dumping measures are no longer warranted because of:

 - No dumping or no subsidisation: provide evidence that there is no dumping, or no subsidy, and why dumping or subsidisation is unlikely to recur if measures were revoked;
 - No injury: provide evidence that there is no current injury, and there is unlikely to be a recurrence of injury, if the measures were to be revoked.
7. Provide the names, addresses, telephone numbers of other parties likely to have an interest in these matter e.g. Australian manufacturers, importers, exporters and/or users.

Lodgement of the application

- This application, together with the supporting evidence, must be lodged in the manner approved by the Commissioner under subsection 269SMS(2) of the Act. The Commissioner has approved lodgement of this application by either:

Public Record

During an investigation all interested parties are given the opportunity to defend their interests, by making a submission. The commission maintains a public record of these submissions. The public record is available on the commission's website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

At the time of making the application both a confidential version (for official use only) and non-confidential version (public record) of the application must be submitted. Please ensure each page of the application is clearly marked "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY" or "PUBLIC RECORD". The non-confidential application should enable a reasonable understanding of the substance of the information submitted in confidence, clearly showing the reasons for seeking an extension of the review, or, if those reasons cannot be summarised, a statement of reasons why summarisation is not possible. If you cannot provide a non-confidential version, contact the commission's client support section for advice.
