About this form

An application for the publication of dumping and/or countervailing duty notices may be withdrawn in full or part at any time before the Minister decides to publish a dumping and/or countervailing duty notice or accept an undertaking. Section 269TB(4) of the Act requires a withdrawal to be made in an approved form and lodged in the manner approved under section 269SMS(3) of the Act. This is the approved form under section 269SMS(1) for the purpose of that subsection.

Signature requirements

Where the application is made:

By a company: the application must be signed by a director, servant or agent acting with the authority of the body corporate.

By a joint venture: a director, employee, agent of each joint venturer must sign the application. Where a joint venturer is not a company, the principal of that joint venturer must sign the application form.

On behalf of a trust: a trustee of the trust must sign the application.

By a sole trader: the sole trader must sign the application.

In any other case: contact the Australian Trade Remedies Commission's (the Commission's) client support section for advice.

NB: Where an application is made by an agent acting with authority on behalf of a company, joint venture, trust or sole trader, an authority to act letter must be provided with this application.
