To: Australian Government Department of Industry, Antidumping commission

Object: request for Accelerated review Brunella food industry S.r.l.

We, Brunella food industry S.r.l. sited in Via Termine Bianco 42, San Marzano Sul Sarno 84010, Salerno, Italy, Vat number IT04999770656, hereby request to the Antidumping commission for accelerated review, because we have never been contacted by the commission and we could not attend the survey (we never received and fill the required questionnaire).

We would like to precise that Brunella Food Industry s.r.l. was born in 2012 and it is a canned tomatoes and legumes industry and we sell our products mainly in the Italian market.

Our company never sold peeled and chopped tomatoes in retailer size in the Australian market and so far we may be eligible for an accelerated review as for your email dated 21st of February 2017 at 22.46.

At this stage Brunella food industry s.r.l. could be considered damaged by the antidumping commission because it could not participate to the antidumping survey and so could be considered excluded from any commercial relationship in the Australian market.

We will wait as soon as possible any feedback and updates from you on the a.m. matter

Thanks and regards

Brunella food industry s.r.l.
