AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2012/64

Consumer pineapple Exported from Thailand

Initiation of a review of anti-dumping measures

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Australian Customs and Border Protection Service (Customs and Border Protection) will undertake a review in respect of consumer pineapple exported to Australia from Thailand by the Thai Pineapple Canning Industry Corp Limited (TPC) pursuant to section 269ZC of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act).

The review will commence on 19 December 2012.

The goods subject to anti-dumping measures, in the form of dumping duty notices, are consumer pineapple. Consumer pineapple is described as pineapple prepared or preserved in containers not exceeding one litre.

Consumer pineapple is classified to tariff subheading 2008.20.00, statistical code 26 and 28 in Schedule 3 of the Customs Tariff Act 1995 (Cth). There is currently no general duty imposed on goods exported from Thailand in accordance with the Thailand-Australia Free Trade Agreement.

Background to the measures

Anti-dumping measures were first imposed on certain pineapple products exported from Thailand on 18 October 2001. All exporters of consumer pineapple from Thailand were subject to interim dumping duties.

Following a decision of the Federal Court in April 2008 measures applying to exports of consumer pineapple from Thailand by TPC lapsed.

Subsequent to an application submitted by Golden Circle in 2011, measures were imposed on consumer pineapple exported from Thailand by TPC. International Trade Remedies Report 173b (REP 173b) refers.

Measures are due to expire on 14 October 2016, subject to any continuation inquiry or revocation.

The current review

On 3 December 2012, Siam Agro-Food Industry Public Company Limited (SAICO), a wholly owned subsidiary of TPC and an exporter of consumer pineapple, lodged an application requesting both a review of the variable factors (export price and normal value) and a revocation review of the anti-dumping measures applying to consumer pineapple exported to Australia from Thailand by TPC.

The CEO decided not to reject the application, the reasons for which are set out in Consideration Report No. 195 (CON 195). CON 195 is available at www.customs.gov.au. A notice indicating that it is proposed to conduct a review of the measures was published in The Australian on 19 December 2012.

The review period is 1 October 2011 to 30 September 2012 and covers exports of consumer pineapple to Australia by TPC.

Customs and Border Protection will undertake both a review of the variable factors, being the export price, normal value and non-injurious price (the variable factors review), and a review to determine whether current measures as they apply to TPC are no longer warranted (the revocation review).

After concluding the review, Customs and Border Protection will recommend to the Minister of Home Affairs (the Minister) that the dumping duty notice:

- i. remain unaltered; or
- ii. be revoked, in part or generally; or
- iii. have effect as if different variable factors had been ascertained.
