

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2018/29

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

Steel Reinforcing Bar

Exported by Daehan Steel Co., Ltd from the Republic of Korea

Anti-circumvention inquiry Avoidance of the intended effect of duty

Extension of time granted to issue Final Report No. 452

On 20 November 2017, Dale Seymour, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of an anti-circumvention inquiry (initiation notice) into avoidance of the intended effect of duty on goods exported to Australia.¹ The alleged circumvention goods are steel reinforcing bar exported to Australia by Daehan Steel Co., Ltd from the Republic of Korea.

A full description of the goods is available in the initiation notice, available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that a recommendation to the relevant Minister, which is now the Assistant Minister for Science, Jobs and Innovation and Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation (the Parliamentary Secretary) would be made in a report on or before 28 February 2018.²

I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Anti-Dumping Commission, consider that additional time is required to finalise verification activities and to fully examine the evidence in relation to whether a circumvention activity has occurred. Accordingly, I requested an extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to provide his report and recommendation to the Parliamentary Secretary.³

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), extended the deadline to provide his report and recommendation.⁴

² On 20 December 2017, the Prime Minister appointed the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation as the Assistant Minister for Science, Jobs and Innovation. For the purposes of this decision the Minister is the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation.

³ On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Act (to the General Managers of the Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 at www.adcommission.gov.au for further information.

⁴ On 19 January 2017, the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science delegated the powers and functions of the Minister under section 269ZHI of the Act to the Commissioner. See ADN No. 2017/10 for further information.

A recommendation to the Parliamentary Secretary will now be made in a final report due on or before 28 March 2018.
