Hi Rajesh

Apologies for delay in responding – please be advised that as these two TCO’s had their size reduced (narrowed description) then BSL and Orrcon DO NOT object to the issuance or continuation of an exemption of dumping duties that relate to these narrowed TCO’s.

Regards

Alan

Dear Alan,

We had requested Orrcon Steel’s views with regard to issuance Exemption on certain Hollow structural sections (HSS) products based on reissued TCO.

In response to Australian Industry’s application the original TCO, on which the exemption application was based, has been amended with narrower description of goods!

Could you please provide us an official letter stating that Orrcon Steel has no objection to issuance of exemption notice based on new TCO (TC 1609617) by COB May 13, 2016?

Please let me know if you have any questions with regard to this exemption case!

Regards
