

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2018/84

REVIEW OF ANTI-DUMPING MEASURES APPLYING TO DEEP DRAWN STAINLESS STEEL SINKS EXPORTED TO AUSTRALIA FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Extension of time granted to issue Statement of Essential Facts and Final Report in relation to a review of measures

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 12 February 2018, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) initiated a review of the anti-dumping measures applying to deep drawn stainless steel sinks exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China by Guangdong Yingao Kitchen Utensils Co., Ltd. (Yingao). The review is limited to examining whether the variable factors relevant to the taking of anti-dumping measures, as they affect Yingao, have changed. The background to the initiation of this review is contained in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2018/24 (Initiation Notice).

The Initiation Notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) for the review would be placed on the public record on or before 2 June 2018. The Initiation Notice also advised that a recommendation to the relevant Minister¹ would be made in a final report on or before 17 July 2018.

To enable the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission) to properly complete its analysis of the variable factors relevant to the anti-dumping measures, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Investigations, requested an extension of time under subsections 269ZHI(1)(d) and (e) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) to the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF, and for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendation to the Assistant Minister.²

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Act,³ extended the deadline to publish the SEF and to provide his final report and recommendations. The SEF will now be placed on the public record no later than 1 August 2018.

² On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Act to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 for further information.

Interested parties are invited to make submissions in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

The Commissioner's recommendation to the Assistant Minister will now be made in a report due on or before 15 September 2018.

Documents included on the public record may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.
