

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2016/68

Customs Act 1901 – Part XV B

CERTAIN PREPARED OR PRESERVED TOMATOES

Exported from Italy by Le Specialità Italiane S.r.L.

Findings in relation to an Accelerated Review of Anti-Dumping Measures

Notice under subsection 269ZG(3) of the Customs Act 1901

The Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) has completed the accelerated review, which commenced on 5 April 2016, of the anti-dumping measures applying to certain prepared or preserved tomatoes (“the goods”) exported to Australia from Italy by Le Specialità Italiane S.r.L. (“the applicant”).

Recommendations resulting from that review, reasons for the recommendations and material findings of fact and law in relation to the review are contained in Anti-Dumping Commission Report No. 351 (REP 351).

I, CRAIG LAUNDY, the Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science¹ (Parliamentary Secretary), have considered REP 351 and have decided to accept the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all the material findings of facts and law set out in REP 351.

Under subsection 269ZG(3)(b) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), I declare that, with effect from 5 April 2016, the Act and the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (the Dumping Duty Act) have effect as if the original dumping duty notice had applied to the applicant but the Parliamentary Secretary had fixed specified different variable factors relevant to the determination of duty.

The duty that has been determined is an amount worked out in accordance the combination of fixed and variable duty method as detailed in the table below.

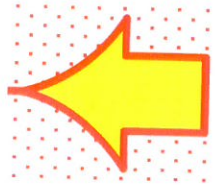

Exporter/country	Dumping Margin	Duty Method
Le Specialità Italiane S.r.L.	0%	combination of fixed and variable duty method

¹ The Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science has delegated responsibility with respect to anti-dumping matters to the Parliamentary Secretary and accordingly the Parliamentary Secretary is the relevant decision maker. On 19 July 2016, the Prime Minister appointed the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science as the Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science.

REP 351 has been placed on the public record, available at www.adcommission.gov.au. The public record may also be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the Case Manager on telephone number +61 3 8539 2467, fax number +61 3 8539 2499 or email at operations1@adcommission.gov.au.

Dated this 10th day of August 2016
