

Note for file:

The Australian Steel Association provided an additional submission on 26 January 2013 on like goods. The Minister has not directed Customs and Border Protection to re-examine like goods and so this falls outside the scope of the reinvestigation. As a result, this submission has not been placed on the public record.