

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2014/75

Prepared or Preserved Tomatoes Exported from Italy

Findings in relation to an Accelerated Review of Anti-Dumping Measures

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

I, Dale Seymour, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission, have completed the accelerated review, which commenced on 12 May 2014, of the anti-dumping measures applying to prepared or preserved tomatoes exported to Australia from Italy in so far as they relate to Calispa S.p.A. Industria Conserve Alimentari (Calispa S.p.A.).

Findings and recommendations were reported to the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry (the Parliamentary Secretary) in Anti-Dumping Commission Report No. 250 (REP 250). The Parliamentary Secretary has considered REP 250 and has accepted the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all material findings of fact or law set out in the REP 250.

Under subsection 269ZG(3)(b)(ii) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), the Parliamentary Secretary declared that with effect from 12 May 2014, the Act and the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 have effect as if the original dumping duty notice had applied to the applicant but the Parliamentary Secretary had fixed specified different variable factors relevant to the determination of duty payable by the applicant.

The duty that has been determined is an amount worked out in accordance with the combination of fixed and variable duty method. Particulars of the dumping margins established for Calispa S.p.A. and the effective rate of duty is also set out in the following table.

Exporter/country	Effective Rate of Duty (fixed component)	Duty Method
Calispa S.p.A. Italy	0%	combination of fixed and variable duty method

The actual duty liability may be higher than the effective rate of duty due to a number of factors. Affected parties should contact the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission) on +61 2 6275 6066 (outside Australia) or at clientsupport@adcommission.gov.au for further information regarding the actual duty liability calculation in their particular circumstance.

Notice of the Parliamentary Secretary's decision was published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on 4 September 2014.

REP 250 has been placed on the public record, which may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.
