1. Background

On 26 November 2012, Customs and Border Protection initiated countervailing investigations in respect of:

- galvanised steel exported to Australia from the People’s Republic of China (China); and
- aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia from China.

BlueScope alleged that the Australian industry has suffered material injury caused by galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia from China at subsidised prices.

A notice advising initiation of the investigations was published in The Australian on 26 November 2012. Australian Customs and Border Protection Dumping Notice (ACDN) No. 2012/56 outlining the details of the investigation, and the procedures to be followed during the investigations can be accessed on Customs and Border Protection website at www.customs.gov.au.

Note that the countervailing investigations are in addition to the current investigations by Customs and Border Protection into the alleged dumping of the goods described above exported from China, Korea and Taiwan, INV 190a and INV 190b refer. These investigations were initiated on 5 September 2012 and are ongoing.

2. The goods the subject of the applications

Description

(i) Galvanised steel

The imported goods the subject of the Galvanised Steel Application are:

“flat rolled products of iron and non-alloy steel of a width less than 600mm and, equal to or greater than 600mm, plated or coated with zinc”\(^2\).

The application covers galvanised steel of any width. The application stated that trade and other names often used to describe galvanised steel, include:

- “GALVABOND®” steel;
- “ZINCFORM®” steel;

\(^1\) Application for Countervailing Duties for Galvanised Steel exported from China (Galvanised Steel Application) received on 18 October 2012; and Application for Countervailing Duties for Aluminium Zinc Coated Steel exported from China (Aluminium Zinc Coated Steel Application) received on 18 October 2012.

\(^2\) Galvanised Steel Application, page 10.
“GALVASPAN®” steel;
“ZINCHITEN®” steel;
“ZINCANNEAL” steel;
“ZINCSEAL” steel;
Galv;
Gl;
Hot Dip Zinc coated steel;
Hot Dip Zinc/iron alloy coated steel; and Galvanneal.

The application noted that the amount of zinc coating on the steel is described as its coating mass and is nominated in grams per meter squared (g/m²) with the prefix being Z (Zinc) or ZF (Zinc converted to a Zinc/Iron alloy coating).

Product standards

The applications stated that:
“Typically each Australian and International Standard has a range of steel grades nominated as Commercial, Formable or Structural grades. The commercial/formable grades are those with mechanical properties suitable for general pressing and forming whereas the structural grades are those with guaranteed minimum properties that structural engineers utilize in the design of their final product designs”\(^4\).

(i) Australia

The applications state that the Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification Code applicable to galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel is category 2711.

(ii) International

Tariff classification

(i) Galvanised steel

The application states that galvanised steel is classified to tariff subheadings 7210.49.00 (and statistical codes 55, 56, 57 and 58) and 7212.30.00 (and statistical code 61) of Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 (Tariff Act). Based on the information provided in the application, Customs and Border Protection’s Trade Policy Branch confirmed that galvanised steel is correctly classified to these tariff subheadings.

Imports from China are subject to the DCS duty rate which is free.

There are several Tariff Concession Orders (TCOs) applicable to the relevant tariff classification subheading 7210.49.00, which covers galvanised steel (figure 2 refers).

Customs and Border Protection notes that the applications did not specify that TCOs in respect of the goods were applicable. Customs and Border Protection considers the relevance of the TCOs to the goods the subject of the application for galvanised steel requires further investigation.

(ii) Aluminium zinc coated steel

The application states that aluminium zinc coated steel is classified to tariff subheading 7210.61.00 (and statistical codes 60, 61, and 62) of Schedule 3 to the Tariff Act. Based on the information provided in the application, Customs and Border Protection’s Trade Policy Branch confirmed that the goods are correctly classified to this tariff subheading.

Imports from China are subject to the DCS duty rate which is free.

There are no TCOs applicable to the relevant tariff classification subheading for aluminium zinc coated steel.

3. Investigation period

The amount of any subsidy in relation to galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia from China will be determined on the basis of an investigation period from 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012 (hereinafter referred to as ‘the investigation period’).

In order to permit the allocation of certain types of subsidy to the investigation period, information relating to earlier periods is also requested in certain sections below.

Customs and Border Protection will examine details of the Australian market from 1 July 2007 for injury analysis purposes.
4. Why you have been asked to fill out this questionnaire

Either the application, an importer of galvanised steel and/or aluminium zinc coated steel or data contained within Customs and Border Protection’s import database has identified you as a potential exporter of galvanised steel and/or aluminium zinc coated steel to Australia during the investigation period.

Consequently, Customs and Border Protection has forwarded you this questionnaire and the associated spreadsheet ‘Exporter Questionnaire – Galvanised Steel and Aluminium Zinc Coated Steel’ to provide you with the opportunity to participate and cooperate with its investigation.

Customs and Border Protection may use information provided by exporters to determine:

- export prices of the goods over the investigation period; and
- whether a countervailable subsidy has been received in respect of the goods from the Government of China (GOC).

Customs and Border Protection may use the information you provide to determine whether galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel exported by your company to Australia was subsidised.

You may make separate submissions concerning any other matter relevant to Customs and Border Protection’s inquiries.

Customs and Border Protection investigation will be carried out under the provisions of Part XVB of the Act. These provisions reflect the World Trade Organisation (WTO) Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures.

Please note that the subsidy sections of this questionnaire focus on 29 identified programs that Customs and Border Protection is specifically investigating at this stage. However, Customs and Border Protection may also investigate any additional subsidy program(s) that it considers may warrant investigation if additional information comes to light.

Any additional questions (relating to either the investigation into alleged countervailable subsidies) will be posed to participating exporters in the form of supplementary questionnaires.

A separate questionnaire will be sent to the GOC. That questionnaire focuses on gathering information from the GOC related to subsidies.

5. Exporters cooperating with the dumping investigations (INV 190a and/or INV 190b)
Note that the subsidy investigations are separate investigations to the ongoing investigations into the alleged dumping of the products from China, Korea and Taiwan (INV 190a and INV 190b). If you have completed an exporter questionnaire in relation to the dumping investigations, and wish to continue to cooperate with the subsidy investigations, you must also complete this questionnaire.

There are certain sections in this questionnaire that are duplicated in the dumping questionnaire that you are not required to complete again. These sections are noted at the relevant points.

If you are unsure about whether you need to complete a question or not please contact the case manager as soon as possible for clarification.

6. What happens if you do not respond to this questionnaire?

You do not have to complete the questionnaire. However, if you do not respond Customs and Border Protection may be required to rely on information supplied by other parties in making its assessments as to whether galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia was subsidised (this may include information supplied by the Australian industry).

If you do not provide all of the information sought, or if you do not allow Customs and Border Protection to verify the information you provide (see below), we may deem that you did not cooperate with the investigation.

It is Customs and Border Protection’s objective to arrive at a recommendation to the Minister based on a full knowledge of all relevant facts. This can only be achieved if exporters cooperate. Customs and Border Protection considers that your interests would be best served by fully completing the questionnaire.

7. If you decide to respond

Should you choose to provide a response to this questionnaire, please note the following.

For Official Use Only and Public Record Version

If you choose to respond to this questionnaire, you are required to lodge a confidential and a public record version of your submission by the due date (the due date is specified on the front cover).

In submitting these versions, please ensure that each page of the information you provide is clearly marked either “FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY” or “PUBLIC RECORD” in the header and footer.
All information provided to Customs and Border Protection in for official use only will be treated confidentially. The public record version of your submission will be placed on the public file. The public record is available to all interested parties who may comment on the material on the public file. Other interested parties have the opportunity to comment on issues you have raised and information you have provided.

It is not expected that the public record version of your submission would include commercially sensitive information. However it must contain sufficient detail to allow a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential version. If, for some reason, you cannot produce a non-confidential version, please contact the investigation Case Manager.

You can access the public record electronically online at www.customs.gov.au (follow the sub links to anti-dumping, current cases and public record).

Declaration

You are required to make a declaration that the information contained in your submitted questionnaire is complete and correct. You must return the signed declaration of an authorised official at Section C of this questionnaire with your response.

Consultants/parties acting on your behalf

If you intend to have another party acting on your behalf please advise Customs and Border Protection of the relevant details.

Customs and Border Protection will generally require written authorisation from exporters and manufacturers for any party acting on its behalf.

8. Due date for response

Manufacturers and exporters are requested to respond to this questionnaire and return it to Customs and Border Protection within the time specified on the cover.

There is a statutory time limit imposed for the investigation. Customs and Border Protection may not be able to consider submissions received after the due date if to do so would prevent meeting the statutory reporting requirements.

Customs and Border Protection encourages you to make contact with the Case Manager (see contact details on front cover) if you need any assistance in completing the questionnaire.

If you intend to lodge a submission but cannot do so by the due date please advise the Case Manager as soon as possible.

In considering whether or not to grant an extension of time, regard is had to the following:
a) difficulties in translation of documentation, including the exporter questionnaire;
b) availability of key staff;
c) public holidays; or
d) any circumstance outside the company’s control.

Customs and Border Protection may consider granting a small extension of time for lodgement of your submission if you provide a sufficient reason as outlined above.

You may lodge your response by mailing it to the address for lodgement shown on the front cover of this questionnaire, with data requested in electronic format on an included CD-ROM.

Alternatively you are welcome to lodge your response by email. The email address for lodgement is shown on the front cover of this questionnaire. If you lodge by email you are still required to provide a ‘for official use only’ and a public file version of your submission by the due date.

9. Verification of the information that you supply

After you have submitted the questionnaire and Customs and Border Protection is satisfied that the information you have provided is sufficiently complete and warrants verification, Customs and Border Protection may seek to visit your company to verify the information provided.

Once the information you have provided is verified, Customs and Border Protection can rely on that information in forming its conclusions in relation to the inquiry.

Verification visits may take several days.

During this verification, we will seek to examine in detail your company’s records in respect of the goods and will ask for copies of documents relating to the manufacture and sale of the goods. You will need to ensure that any supplementary material such as spreadsheets, calculations etc that you used to prepare or compile your response are available. We will need to consult with your staff, particularly your financial controller (or accountant) and your domestic and export sales people. We may also need to see your factory, in which case we will need to consult with your operational managers.

After gathering the information we will prepare a report of the visit.

We will provide you with a draft of the report and then respond to any questions that you may want to ask. We will also ask you to assist in the preparation of a public record version of the report.

10. General instructions for preparing your response

- When answering the questionnaire please carefully read all instructions. Customs and Border Protection requires a response to all sections of this questionnaire. Please provide an explanation if a question is not relevant to your situation.
All documents and source material submitted in response to this questionnaire, including financial statements, must be translated into English.

Answer questions in the order presented in the questionnaire. Please ensure that information submitted conforms to the requested format and is clearly labelled. Please repeat the question to which you are responding and place your answer below it.

Identify source documents and advise where they are kept. During on-site verification you should be prepared to substantiate all the information you have submitted. Every part of the response should be traceable to company documents that are used in the ordinary course of business.

You should retain all work sheets used in answering the questionnaire, in particular those linking the information supplied with management and accounting records. This will help to verify the information.

Clearly identify all units of measurement and currencies used. Apply the same measurement consistently throughout your response to the questionnaire.

11. Instructions on providing electronic data

- It is important that, where requested, information is submitted in electronic format on a CD-ROM.
- Alternatively electronic data can be submitted directly by email to the email address shown on the front cover of this questionnaire.
- The data must be created as spreadsheet files, preferably in Microsoft Excel 2010, 2007 or 2003, or alternatively in an Excel compatible format (for example, Excel can normally access data in Dbase or as an ASCII file).
- The Excel files must be compatible to the USA version.
- If you cannot present electronic data in the requested format contact the investigation Case Manager as soon as possible.
- Responses to questions should be as accurate and complete as possible, and attach all relevant supporting documents, even where not specifically requested in this questionnaire.

Please note that answers such as: "Not Applicable" or an answer that only refers to an exhibit or an attachment may not be considered by Customs and Border Protection to be adequate. We therefore suggest that in answering the questions you outline the key elements of your response in the primary submission document, rather than merely pointing to supporting documents of varying degrees of relevance and reliability as your answer.

12. Further information

Before you respond to the questionnaire you should read all the documentation that we have included with this questionnaire, including:

- the booklet Australia's Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Administration;
- Australian Customs Dumping Notice 2012/56 notifying the initiation of the investigation; and
- the Glossary of Terms within this questionnaire.
It is also recommended that you access and read the public file version of BlueScope’s application, which is available online on the Electronic Public Record (You can access the public record electronically online at www.customs.gov.au (follow the sub links to anti-dumping, current cases and public record).

If you require further assistance, or you are having difficulties completing your submission, please contact the investigation Case Manager.

Please note that Customs and Border Protection may send you a supplementary questionnaire if it needs to clarify matters provided by you in response to this questionnaire or to seek new information.

(3) The total workshop cost (including allocated cost of general manufacture department) of “finished goods” of the previous workshop/stage, is transferred into the next workshop/stage as the raw materials input.

(4) In all of the production stages (including hot dipped alum-zinc workshop), the calculation of the unit cost of the finished goods are describe as below:

\text{Per unit cost of the finished goods} = \frac{\text{Total cost of manufacturing of finished goods}}{\text{Production quantity (in MT) of the finished goods}}

B-1 For each customer in Australia to whom you shipped goods in the investigation period list:

- name;
- address;
- contact name and phone/fax number where known; and

Use a formula to show the method of the calculation on each line of the export sales spreadsheet.

Ocean freight: as ocean freight is a significant cost it is important that the actual amount of ocean freight incurred on each exportation be reported. If estimates must be made you must explain the reasons and set out the basis - estimates must reflect changes in freight rates over the investigation period.

Freight allocations must be checked for consistency.

Response:

Please refer to our submission of sales listing provided in AD Response.

B-5

If there are any other costs, charges or expenses incurred in respect of the exports listed above which have not been identified in the table above, add a column within the ‘Australian sales’ spreadsheet (see “other factors” in question B-4) for each item, and provide a description of each item. For example, other selling expenses (direct or indirect) incurred in relation to the export sales to Australia.

Response:
Zongcheng has no other costs, charges or expenses incurred in respect of the exports listed above.

B-6 For each type of discount, rebate, or allowance offered on export sales to Australia:

- provide a description; and
- explain the terms and conditions that must be met by the importer to obtain the discount.

Where the amounts of these discounts, rebates etc are not identified on the sales invoice, explain how you calculated the amount shown in your response to question B4. If they vary by customer or level provide an explanation.

Response:
Zongcheng did not offer discount, rebate or allowance on export sales to Australia.

B-7 If you have issued credit notes (directly or indirectly) to the customers in Australia, in relation to the invoices listed in the detailed transaction by transaction listing in response to question B4, provide details of each credit note if the credited amount has not been reported as a discount or rebate.

Response:
Zongcheng has not issued credit notes on sales to Australia.

B-8 If the delivery terms make you responsible for arrival of the goods at an agreed point within Australia (e.g. delivered duty paid), insert additional columns in the spreadsheet for all other costs incurred. For example:

Response:
Zongcheng had no DDP sales to Australia.

B-9 Select two shipments of each product (galvanised steel and aluminium zinc coated steel), in different quarters of the investigation period, and provide a complete set of all of the documentation related to the export sale. For example:

- the importer’s purchase order, order confirmation, and contract of sale;
- commercial invoice;
bill of lading, export permit;
freight invoices in relation to movement of the goods from factory to Australia, including inland freight contract;
marine insurance expenses; and letter of credit, and bank documentation, proving payment.

Customs and Border Protection will select additional shipments for payment verification at the time of the visit.

Response:
Zongcheng has selected two samples- invoice numbers………………………………

Please refer to Exhibit 12 for Australia sample (1) and Exhibit 13 for Australia sample (2) submitted in AD response.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Throughout this questionnaire, there are certain words and terminology used that require some clarification. The following are their definitions for purposes of this investigation.

Arms length

Sales are not considered to be at "arms length" on your domestic market if there is any consideration payable for the goods other than their price, or there is an association between the buyer and the seller which affects the price, or there will be a reimbursement, compensation or benefit for, or in respect of, the price.

Benefit

As further defined in relation to the definition of the term 'subsidy' below, 'benefit' may include:

- a direct transfer of funds;
- the acceptance of liabilities (e.g. debts or other liabilities), whether actual or potential, of your enterprise;
- the forgoing, or non-collection, of revenue (other than an allowable exemption or remission) that was otherwise due (e.g. reduced rate of income tax, waiving certain other taxes);
- the provision of goods or services otherwise than in the course of providing normal infrastructure; or
- the purchase of goods

by the Government of China (GOC) (at any level), a public body of the GOC, or a private body entrusted by the GOC to carry out GOC functions.

Country of origin

The country in which the last significant process in the manufacture or production of the goods was performed.

Export price

The export price of the goods is usually the price paid or payable to the exporter in arms' length transactions, in most instances calculated at the Free on Board (FOB) level.

Exporting country

The country of export is normally the country of origin from which the goods are shipped. The country of export may be an intermediate country, except where the products are merely transhipped through that country, or the products concerned are not produced in that country, and there is no comparable price in that country.
Factory overheads

Factory overheads consist of variable costs eg. power, supplies, indirect labour and fixed costs e.g. factory rent, factory insurance, factory depreciation etc.

Foreign Invested Enterprise (FIE)

An FIE may be:

1. Chinese-foreign equity joint venture:

   Joint venture between a Chinese company, enterprise, or other business organisation and a foreign company, enterprise, business organisation or individual set up in the form of a Chinese limited liability company.

   The characteristics of a Chinese-foreign equity joint venture are joint investment, joint operation, and the participants share profits, risks and losses in proportion to their respective contributions to the registered capital of the joint venture.

   The proportion of the investment by the foreign party is no less than 25% in the registered capital of equity joint venture.

2. Chinese-foreign contractual joint venture:

   A joint venture established between foreign enterprises and other economic organisations or individuals, and Chinese enterprises or other economic organisations within the territory of China. The rights and obligations of each party are determined in accordance with the agreement specified in the contractual joint venture contract. The investment or conditions for cooperation contributed by the Chinese and foreign parties may be provided in cash or in kind, or may include the right to the use of land, industrial property rights, non-patent technology or other property rights.

3. Wholly foreign owned enterprises:

   A wholly foreign owned enterprise is established by foreign enterprises and other economic organisations or by individuals pursuant to the Chinese laws within the territory of China. All of the wholly foreign owned enterprise’s capital is invested by foreign investors. It may also be referred to as a Foreign Enterprise (FE).

Selling, general and administration expenses (SG&A)

The selling, general and administration expenses includes all selling, distribution, general and administration expenses including finance costs that would be incurred if the goods were sold for domestic consumption in the country of export. The amounts are determined in each case using all the available information and may include expenses incurred in:

- domestic sales of like goods;
- sale of goods of the same general category by the exporter; or
- sales in the industry in the country of export.

The expenses must, however, reflect the selling, general and administration costs of the goods. Administrative and selling expenses include: director’s fees, management salaries and benefits, office salaries and benefits, office supplies, insurance, promotion, entertainment, depreciation and corporate overheads.

For the purposes of this questionnaire, SOE refers to any company or enterprise that is wholly or partially owned by the GOC as defined above (either through direct ownership or through association).

In previous investigations and correspondence, the GOC has advised that the use of the term ‘SOE’ is declining in China, and that these enterprises are now referred to with terms such as:

- ‘enterprises with state investment’
- ‘state-owned assets’
- ‘state-invested enterprises’
