to accept the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all the material findings of facts and law.

Under subsection 269ZDB(1)(a)(iii) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), I DECLARE that, for the purposes of the Act and the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (Dumping Duty Act), that, with effect from the date of publication of this notice, the dumping duty notice currently applying to aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia from China, and the Republic of Korea in relation to:

- Zongcheng,
- Angang, and
- YP Technomaterial,

be taken to have effect as if I had fixed different variable factors in respect of each of these exporters, relevant to the determination of duty.

To preserve confidentiality, details of the revised variable factors being the Ascertained Export Price (AEP), Ascertained Normal Value (ANV) and Non-Injurious Price (NIP) will not be published.

I, CRAIG LAUNDY, the Parliamentary Secretary, DETERMINE, pursuant to section 8(5) of the Dumping Duty Act, that the interim dumping duty (IDD) payable on aluminium zinc coated steel exported to Australia by

- Zongcheng,
- Angang, and
- YP Technomaterial,

be an amount worked out in accordance with the combination of fixed and variable duty method pursuant to subsections 5(2) and (3) of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Regulation 2013, as detailed in the table below, to take effect the day following publication of this notice.

Exporter	Country	Fixed component of IDD	Duty Method
Zongcheng	China	NA	Combination of fixed and variable. Consisting of a fixed rate of IDD (ad valorem), plus a variable component of IDD equal to the amount, if any, by which the actual export price is lower than the ascertained export price.
Angang	China	NA
YP Technomaterial	China	NA

Table 2: Summary of the rate and form of duty

As outlined in the Final Report, for each exporter, the NIP has been set as equal to their respective ANV. As such, I was not required to and did not have regard to the lesser duty rule under subsection 8(5B) of the Dumping Duty Act.

The variable factors set for these exporters is confidential.
