

COLLECTED REQUESTS FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR THE SUBMISSION OF EXPORTER QUESTIONNAIRES (VARIOUS PARTIES)

PREPARED OR PRESERVED TOMATO PRODUCTS

Exported from Italy

Investigation into Alleged Dumping

Summary:

The Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission) has received formal submissions from a number of interested parties identified as exporters of prepared or preserved tomato products exported to Australia from Italy (the Goods) requesting an extension of time, of varying durations beyond the deadline of 19 August 2013, with respect to the submission of completed exporter questionnaire responses.

Given the relatively high number of entities who have submitted such requests, the Commission has collated the documentary evidence relating to requests that have been received from exporters who have:

- a) Provided an individual formal request for an extension; and
- b) Who have submitted a completed response to Part 1 of the questionnaire prior to, or in conjunction with, their extension request.

The Commission has collated requests from the following entities within this document for electronic publication:

- Attianese S.P.A;
- Bioltalia
- Corex S.P.A
- Fiamma Vesuviana;
- Greci Industria Alimentare S.P.A
- Lodato Gennaro & Co S.P.A;
- Mutti S.P.A; and
- Nolana Conserve S.P.A

Dear Mr. O'Connor,

Kindly find here attached the Preliminary Information request duly filled.

Concerning Point. N. 12, we intended :
TONS OF FRESH TOMATO PROCESSED IN OUR FACTORY FOR THE SALES ON THE PERIOD INDICATED, Australian Export and Total Company.

Concerning PART 2 – SPECIFIC EXPORT INFORMATION – we kindly ask you to have more time, possibly end of September , to complete the Questionnaire because august is a difficult time for our Company due to “crop production” as well as vacations period, and it will make more difficult for our people to work hardly to recover all the necessary data.

Thanks for your kind attention and understanding.

Dear Mr. Mc Gregor,

We received an envelop from you yesterday and eventually get noticed about recent Australian commission for tomato anti-dumping plan.

Despite this late notice, we managed to fill in Part I with general information on our company for your convenience.

(Redacted text)

Otherwise, if we are obliged to submit Part II of the questionnaire anyway, we kindly ask you to defer current deadline. It is summertime and most of our staff is or will shortly be on vacation: providing you with information sought in such a short time would be rather tricky for us. We only received your letter yesterday after all.

Also, please, provide us with a questionnaire that can be easily filled in with an user friendly format, such as DOC.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best Regards,
