

Australian Government
Anti-Dumping Commission

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

PROCESSED DRIED CURRANTS
EXPORTED FROM GREECE

Findings in relation to a Continuation Inquiry into
Anti-Dumping Measures

Public Notice under subsections 269ZH(1) and (4) of the Customs Act 1901

The Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission) has completed its inquiry, which commenced on 11 July 2013, into whether the expiration of the anti-dumping measures applying to processed dried currants (currants) exported to Australia from Greece, would lead, or would be likely to lead, to a continuation of, or a recurrence of, the dumping and the material injury that the measures are intended to prevent.

Recommendations resulting from that inquiry, reasons for the recommendations and material findings of fact or law in relation to the inquiry are contained in Anti-Dumping Commission Report No. 213 (REP 213).

I, BOB BALDWIN, the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, have considered REP 213 and have decided to accept the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all the material findings of fact or law, therein and have decided that the anti-dumping measures applying to currants exported to Australia from Greece should continue from 14 January 2014.

Under section 269ZH of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), I have decided to secure the continuation of the anti-dumping measures currently applying to currants exported to Australia from Greece.

I determine that the notice continues in force after 14 January 2014.

Interested parties may seek a review of this decision by lodging an application with the Anti-Dumping Review Panel (www.adreviewpanel.gov.au), in accordance with the requirements in Division 9 of Part XVB of the Act, within 30 days of the publication of this notice.

REP 213 has been placed on the Commission's public record, available at www.adcommission.gov.au. Alternatively, the public record may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number (02) 6275 5755, fax number 1300 882 506 or +61 2 6275 6888 (outside Australia) or email Operations2@adcommission.gov.au.

Dated this 6th day of January 2014

BOB BALDWIN
Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry
