POLYVINYL CHLORIDE FLAT ELECTRIC CABLES EXPORTED FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA TERMINATION OF AN INVESTIGATION

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 30 October 2014 I, Dale Seymour, Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission initiated an investigation into the alleged dumping of certain polyvinyl chloride flat electric cables (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China), following an application lodged by Olex Australia Pty Ltd under subsection 269TB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act).

I published a notice in The Australian on 6 November 2014 notifying of the initiation of the investigation, and issued Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2014/118, which contains further details on the investigation, available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

As a result of the Commission's investigation, I am satisfied that:

- in relation to Dongguan Minxing Cables Co. Ltd, there has been no dumping by that exporter of any of the goods the subject of the application and, therefore, have decided to terminate the investigation in accordance with subsection 269TDA(1)(b)(i) of the Act so far as it relates to that exporter;
- in relation to Guilin International Wire & Cable Group Co. Ltd, Guilin Feilong Wire & Cable Co. Ltd, Guilin Xianglong Wire & Cable Co. Ltd and Ao Ning Electric Cables Co. Ltd, the goods exported by those exporters have been dumped, but the dumping margin is less than two per cent and, therefore, have decided to terminate the investigation in accordance with subsection 269TDA(1)(b)(ii) of the Act so far as it relates to those exporters; and
- in relation to all other exporters from China, the injury, if any, to the Australian industry, that has been, or may be, caused by those exports is negligible and, therefore, have decided to terminate the investigation in accordance with subsection 269TDA(13) of the Act.

In making the decision to terminate, I had regard to the application, the Statement of Essential Facts No. 271, submissions received from interested parties, and other relevant information received throughout the course of the investigation.

Termination Report No. 271, which sets out reasons for the termination decisions, including the material findings of fact or law upon which the decisions are based, has been placed on the Commission's public record, which may be examined at the Commission office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

A notice of my decision to terminate the investigation was published in The Australian newspaper on 9 July 2015.
