

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2018/11

Investigation No. 442

Investigation into Alleged Dumping of Certain Aluminium Extrusions exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China by Guangdong Jiangsheng Aluminium Co., Ltd and Guangdong Zhongya Aluminium Company Ltd; and the Kingdom of Thailand

Extension of time granted to issue
Statement of Essential Facts and Final Report

Customs Act 1901 – Part XV B

On 19 October 2017, Dale Seymour, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of an investigation into the alleged dumping of certain aluminium extrusions (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China by Guangdong Jiangsheng Aluminium Co., Ltd and Guangdong Zhongya Aluminium Company Ltd; and the Kingdom of Thailand.

The background to the initiation of this investigation and a full description of the goods is contained in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2017/144.

ADN No. 2017/144 advised that the Statement of Essential Facts (SEF) would be placed on the public record by 6 February 2018. It also advised that a recommendation to the relevant Minister would be made in a final report on or before 23 March 2018.

In order to complete the verification of information that has been provided by interested parties and to further examine the injury and causation claims made by the Australian industry, I, Geoff Gleeson, Acting General Manager, Investigations, requested an extension of time, under subsections 269ZHI(1)(a) and 269ZHI(1)(b) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), to the deadline for the Commissioner¹ to publish the SEF, and for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendation to the relevant Minister. It is noted that the relevant Minister for this investigation has changed since the investigation was initiated and is now the Assistant Minister for Science, Jobs and Innovation and Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation (Parliamentary Secretary).²

¹ On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Act to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 for further information.

² On 20 December 2017, the Prime Minister appointed the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation as the Assistant Minister for Science, Jobs and Innovation. For the purposes of this investigation the Minister is now the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Jobs and Innovation.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Act,³ extended the deadline to publish the SEF to 30 April 2018.

Interested parties are invited to make submissions in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

If the investigation is not terminated earlier, a recommendation to the Parliamentary Secretary in relation to this investigation will be made in a report due on or before 14 June 2018.

Documents included on the public record may be examined at www.adcommission.gov.au or at the Anti-Dumping Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number +61 3 8539 2447 or email at investigations3@adcommission.gov.au.
