PUBLIC VERSION
CASE NO 419

Dear Mr. Scott Gladman

Following our review of the Commission's dumping calculations for FEMCO, we have identified an inadvertent error that was caused by the [REDACTED].

Due to the limitations of our [REDACTED] system, which cannot be amended, FEMCO had to do the [REDACTED]. Our domestic sales list provided in the beginning included both [REDACTED]. Because of this situation, when we fill in the column for invoice value, we [REDACTED]. That's the reason why it makes huge profit on our domestic sales. As attached, you can find the correctly sequenced domestic transaction data extracted from our [REDACTED] system.

The attached correctly sequenced domestic sales listing reconciles to the verified sales data and supporting documentation with regard to the selected domestic sales requested by the Commission during verification.

Sorry for any inconvenience.
