Dear Mr Katsoulis,

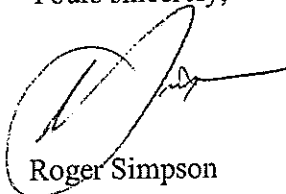

This letter, on behalf of PT Asahimas Flat Glass Tbk (“AMG”), is in response to the letter of 1 August 2016 to the Commission on behalf of Xinyi Ultrathin (Dongyuan) Co Ltd, China (“Xinyi”).

In response to our submission of 15 July 2016 concerning Viridian’s supplementation of its sales with imports from Xinyi, the said letter on behalf of Xinyi states that “Xinyi did not export the goods to Viridian in the last five years”, but goes on to state that –

Xinyi is not in possession of enough information to comment on AMG’s suggestion that Viridian may have purchased the goods as exported by Xinyi from other parties.

We make the point that our submission concerning Viridian’s supplementation of its sales with imports from Xinyi does not claim that these imports were exported to Viridian by Xinyi, as is denied by Xinyi. Our submission claims that imports from Xinyi used to supplement Viridian’s sales may have been purchased by Viridian “from an Australian customer of Xinyi”. This possibility is not denied by Xinyi.

Yours sincerely,

Roger Simpson
