

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

Notice under subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901

Clear Float Glass

Exported from the Kingdom of Thailand, the Peoples

Republic of China and the Republic of Indonesia

Expiry of anti-dumping measures

I, Dale Seymour, Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner), in accordance with subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), advise that the anti-dumping measures on clear float glass exported to Australia from the Kingdom of Thailand (Thailand), the People's Republic of China (China) and the Republic of Indonesia (Indonesia) expire on 17 October 2016.

The anti-dumping measures were initially imposed by public notice on 17 October 2011 by the then Attorney-General following consideration of Trade Measures Report No. 159C.

Those persons as specified at subsection 269ZHB(1)(b) of the Act are invited to apply for the continuation of the anti-dumping measures. The application must be in writing, be in an approved form, contain such information that the form requires and be signed in the manner indicated in the form. Applications must be lodged by 1 February 2016.

The application must provide evidence addressing whether there appear to be reasonable grounds for asserting that the expiration of the anti-dumping measures to which the application relates might lead, or might be likely to lead, to a continuation of, or a recurrence of, the material injury that the measures are intended to prevent.

If an application is received that complies with the prescribed requirements and I decide not to reject that application, I will undertake an inquiry and I will report to the Assistant Minister for Science and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science (the Parliamentary Secretary)¹ within 155 days (or by such later date as the Parliamentary Secretary may allow in accordance with subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Act). I will publish a notice Anti-Dumping Commission's website advising the commencement of such an inquiry.

If no application is received within the period specified above, the anti-dumping measures applying to clear float glass from Thailand, China and Indonesia will expire on 17 October 2016. Therefore, on and from 18 October 2016 anti-dumping measures would no longer apply.

Copies of the approved application form and the accompanying guidelines are available on the internet at www.adcommission.gov.au. Enquiries about this notice should be made to the Commission on telephone 13 28 46 or +61 2 6213 6000 (outside Australia), facsimile (03) 8539 2499 or +61 3 8539 2499 (outside Australia) or email at clientsupport@adcommission.gov.au.
