

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2023/009

Aluminum Extrusions

Exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China

Extension of time granted to issue the Statement of Essential Facts and the Final Report Review No 609

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 8 August 2022, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice (initiation notice)¹ announcing the initiation of a review in relation to aluminum extrusions (the goods)² exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China.

The initiation notice advised that the Commissioner would publish the statement of essential facts (SEF) on the public record by 28 November 2022. The SEF will set out the facts on which the Commissioner proposes to base his recommendations to the Minister for Industry and Science (the Minister) in relation to this review. The initiation notice also advised that the Commissioner would make a recommendation to the Minister in a final report on or before 10 January 2023.

Following the initiation of the review, the Commissioner extended the deadline for publishing the SEF and providing recommendations in the final report to the Minister³. Following that extension, the SEF was due to be placed on the public record by 28 February 2023, and recommendations to the Minister were due in a final report on or before 14 May 2023.

To allow the commission time to gather and verify data, conduct analysis and to prepare the SEF, I, Isolde Lueckenhausen, Deputy Commissioner, Investigations, Anti-Dumping Commission, have requested a further extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister.⁴

¹ Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) 2022/081, Electronic Public Record (EPR) 609, item 1. The EPR is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

² The initiation notice includes a full description of the goods.

³ ADN 2022/118, EPR 609, item 12.

⁴ On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) to the Deputy Commissioners of the commission. See ADN 2017/10 for further information.

The Commissioner has, under section 269ZHI(3) of the Act,⁵ extended the due date to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister.

The Commissioner is now due to publish a SEF on the public record no later than 14 April 2023. Interested parties are invited to make submissions to the Commissioner in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

The Commissioner is now due to provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister on or before 2 June 2023.
