Exported from the People's Republic of China except goods exported by Guilin International Wire & Cable Co Ltd
Extension of time granted to issue
the Statement of Essential Facts and Final Report

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

The Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) has extended the due date to publish the Statement of Essential Facts (SEF) and provide the final report and recommendation to the Minister about the above case.¹

New milestone dates

SEF – The SEF is now due to be placed on the public record on, or before, 01 February 2024.

Response to SEF – Interested parties are invited to make submissions in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

Final Report – A recommendation to the Minister will be made in a final report which is now due on, or before, 28 March 2024.

The previous due date for the SEF was 27 September 2023. The previous due date for the final report was 11 November 2023.

¹ They do so under section 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901. On 19 January 2017, the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science delegated the powers and functions of the Minister under section 269ZHI of the Act to the Commissioner. See Anti-Dumping Notice 2017/10 for further information.

Basis for extension

I, Matthew Williams, am the Acting Deputy Commissioner Investigations, Anti-Dumping Commission (the commission). I requested the extension of the due date to publish the SEF and to provide the final report and recommendation to the Minister.

I requested the extension because there have been delays completing verification of relevant data and to account for a reduced activity period and public holidays over the Christmas and New Year period.

Further information and enquiries

The commission's website (www.adcommission.gov.au) contains all public records for commission cases. The public record for each case includes the initiating notice and also notices of any previously granted extensions of time. Initiating notices contain full case details, including original milestone dates and a description of the goods.
