

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO 2024/057

Customs Act 1901 (Cth) – Part XVB

Steel Reinforcing Bar

Exported from the Republic of Korea and the Kingdom of Spain
(except Nervacero S.A.)

Expiry of anti-dumping measures

Notice under subsection 269ZHB (1) of the *Customs Act 1901 (Cth)

I, Isolde Lueckenhausen, the Acting Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission, in accordance with section 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) (the Act),<sup>1</sup> advise that the anti-dumping measures (the measures) on steel reinforcing bar (the goods), exported to Australia from the Republic of Korea and the Kingdom of Spain (except Nervacero S.A.), are due to expire on 19 November 2025.

The measures were initially imposed by public notice in the form of a dumping duty notice on 19 November 2015 by the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science following consideration of Anti-Dumping Commission Report No 264 (REP 264).

The measures were last continued in 2020 following consideration of, Anti-Dumping Commission Report No 546 (REP 546) by then, the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology.

Those persons specified in section 269ZHB(1)(b) of the Act are invited to apply for a continuation of the measures. The application must be in writing, be in the form approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of section 269ZHC, contain such information that the form requires, be signed in the manner indicated in the form, and be lodged in the manner approved under section 269SMS. Applications must be lodged by 18 November 2024.

The application must provide evidence addressing whether there appear to be reasonable grounds for asserting that the expiration of the measures to which the application relates might lead, or might be likely to lead, to a continuation of, or a recurrence of, the material injury that the measures are intended to prevent.

If an application is received that complies with the prescribed requirements and a decision is taken to not reject that application, a notice will be published on the Anti-Dumping Commission's website indicating that it is proposed to inquire whether the continuation of the measures is justified. In this case, an inquiry will be undertaken and a statement of essential facts on which I propose to base my recommendations to the Minister will be published within 110 days of publication of this notice, and a report with final recommendations will be provided to the Minister within 155 days from this notice. These timeframes may be extended by a longer period as allowed in accordance with section 269ZHI of the Act.

If no application is received by 18 November 2024, the measures applying to the goods, exported to Australia from the Republic of Korea and the Kingdom of Spain (except Nervacero S.A.), will expire on 19 November 2025. Therefore, on and from 20 November 2025, the measures would no longer apply.
