

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2024/097

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

Deep drawn stainless steel sinks

Exported from the People’s Republic of China

Findings in Relation to Review of Anti-Dumping Measures No 652

Notice under section 269ZDB(1) of the Customs Act 1901

The Acting Commissioner¹ of the Anti-Dumping Commission has completed a review, which commenced on 25 June 2024, of the anti-dumping measures, in the form of a dumping duty notice, applying to deep drawn stainless steel sinks (the goods) exported to Australia from the People’s Republic of China (China).²

Recommendations resulting from that review, reasons for the recommendations and material findings of fact and law in relation to the review are contained in Anti-Dumping Commission Report No. 652 (Report 652).

I, ED HUSIC, Minister for Industry and Science, have considered REP 652 and have decided to accept the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all the material findings of facts or law set out in Report 652.

Under section 269ZDB(1)(a)(ii) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), I declare that, for the purposes of the Act and the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (Dumping Duty Act), with effect from 25 June 2024, the dumping duty notice currently applying to the goods exported to Australia from China is taken to be revoked in relation to exporters generally.

Interested parties may seek a review of this decision by lodging an application with the Anti-Dumping Review Panel (www.adreviewpanel.gov.au) in accordance with the requirements in Division 9 of Part XVB of the Act, within 30 days of the publication of this notice.

Report 652 has been placed on the public record, which may be examined at the Anti-Dumping Commission Office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

¹ References in this document to individuals holding positions within the Anti-Dumping Commission (commission) are references to whoever occupies the position at the time. This includes when the position is held in an acting capacity.

² The review does not include a review of the countervailing duty notice applying to the goods exported from China. The countervailing duty notice was subject to Continuation Inquiry 646 initiated on 6 May 2024. Anti-Dumping Notice No. 2024/028 refers.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the Case Manager on telephone number +61 3 8359 2418, or investigations4@adcommission.gov.au.
