

Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975

Hot rolled coil steel

Exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China

Notice under section 10(3B) of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975

I, TIM AYRES, the Minister for Industry and Innovation and Minister for Science, having decided to issue a notice¹ pursuant to sections 269TJ(1) and 269TJ(2) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) (the Act) in respect of hot rolled coil steel described in that notice (the goods), DIRECT, pursuant to section 10(3B) of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (the Dumping Duty Act), that the interim countervailing duty referred to in section 10(3A) of that Act in respect of the goods exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China by 'all other exporters' be ascertained as a proportion of the export price of those particular goods.

Pursuant to section 10(3D) of the Dumping Duty Act I considered whether I was required to have regard to the desirability of fixing a lesser amount of duty, also known as the lesser duty rule. I am satisfied that under section 10(3DA) of the Dumping Duty Act, I am not required to have regard to the lesser duty rule because the normal value of the goods was not ascertained under section 269TAC(1) because of the operation of section 269TAC(2)(a)(ii).

Exemptions to the measures

I have accepted the recommendations of Anti-Dumping Commission Report No 658 (REP 658) and have exempted certain subsets of the goods from the measures in accordance with sections 8(7)(a) and 10(8)(a) of the Dumping Duty Act. A copy of the exemption instrument detailing the exemption goods has been placed on the commission website (www.adcommission.gov.au).

Further information

If importers believe that goods they are importing are exempted from the duties in accordance with the exemption instrument, when they or their broker enter these goods for home consumption via the Integrated Cargo System, the exemption category 'GOODS' should be selected and no interim dumping or interim countervailing duties will be applied to the shipment. Parties seeking a refund of the duties already paid should contact the commission's client support team on 13 28 46 or +61 2 6213 6000 or email clientsupport@adcommission.gov.au.

The decision to grant the exemption does not prevent further applications for exemptions from the duties being considered. Parties can apply for an exemption where they believe their goods satisfy any of the conditions for exemption detailed in sections 8(7) and 10(8) of the Dumping Duty Act. Further information on the application process can be found on the commission's website.

The exemptions granted as a result of this inquiry may be subject to review and I may revoke them if circumstances change.
