

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2026/070

Zinc coated (galvanised) steel

Exported to Australia from the Republic of Korea and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Withdrawal of application for a dumping duty notice Case No. 702

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 30 April 2026, the Anti-Dumping Commission (the commission) published Anti-Dumping Notice No. 2026/062¹ announcing the initiation of an investigation into the alleged dumping of zinc coated (galvanised) steel exported to Australia from the Republic of Korea (Korea) by Dongkuk Steel Mill Co Ltd (DSM) and Posco Holdings Inc (POSCO), and from the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam) by Hoa Sen Group Joint Stock Company (Hoa Sen) and Nam Kim Steel Joint Stock Company (Nam Kim).

The investigation followed an application by BlueScope Steel Ltd (BlueScope).²

On 19 May 2026, by notice in writing lodged with me as Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission, BlueScope withdrew its application, in accordance with section 269TB(3) of the Customs Act 1901. Accordingly, I have ceased the investigation concerning the application and no findings will be made on the allegations of dumping, material injury and causal link.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number 03 8539 2447 or investigations2@adcommission.gov.au.
