

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO 2026/065

Customs Act 1901 (Cth) – Part XVB

Zinc Coated (Galvanised) Steel

Exported from the Republic of India, Malaysia and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Expiry of anti-dumping measures

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

Notice under subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth)

I, David Latina, Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission, in accordance with subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) (the Act),¹ advise that the anti-dumping measures (the measures) on Zinc Coated (Galvanised) Steel (the goods), exported to Australia from the Republic of India (India), Malaysia and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam) are due to expire on 16 August 2027.

The measures were initially imposed by public notice in the form of a dumping duty notice for India, Malaysia and Vietnam and a countervailing duty notice for India on 16 August 2017 by the then Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science following consideration of Anti-Dumping Commission Final Report No.370.²

The measures were last continued in 2022 following consideration of Anti-Dumping Commission Report No 592 by then Minister for Industry and Science.³

Those persons specified in section 269ZHB(1)(b) of the Act are invited to apply for a continuation of the measures. The application must be in writing, be in the form approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of section 269ZHC, contain such information that the form requires, be signed in the manner indicated in the form, and be lodged in the manner

² Further details of the measures can be found on the Dumping Commodity Register and the Anti-Dumping Commission's website.

³ Further details of the measures can be found on the Dumping Commodity Register and the Anti-Dumping Commission's website.

approved under section 269SMS. Applications must be lodged by 5:00pm (AEST or AEDST) 17 August 2026.⁴

The application must provide evidence addressing whether there appear to be reasonable grounds for asserting that the expiration of the measures to which the application relates might lead, or might be likely to lead, to a continuation of, or a recurrence of, the material injury that the measures are intended to prevent.⁵

If an application is received that complies with the prescribed requirements and I decide not to reject that application, I will publish a notice on the Anti-Dumping Commission's website indicating that it is proposed to inquire whether continuation of the measures is justified. I will undertake an inquiry and report my recommendation to the Minister for Industry and Innovation and Minister for Science within 155 days of publication of the notice advising commencement of the inquiry (or such longer period as allowed in accordance with section 269ZHI of the Act).

If no application is received by 17 August 2026, the measures applying to the goods, exported to Australia from India, Malaysia and Vietnam, will expire on 16 August 2027. Therefore, on and from 17 August 2027, the measures would no longer apply.

Copies of the approved application form and the accompanying guidelines are available at <https://www.industry.gov.au/anti-dumping-commission>. Enquiries about this notice should be made to www.business.gov.au by phone on 13 28 46 or +61 2 6213 6000 (outside Australia) or by email at clientsupport@adcommission.gov.au.
