

Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975

Certain flat rolled steel products

Exported from the People's Republic of China

Notice pursuant to sections 10(3B) and 10(3D) of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975

I, TIM AYRES, the Minister for Industry and Innovation and Minister for Science, have decided to issue a notice pursuant to section 269TJ(1) and section 269TJ(2) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) in respect of certain flat rolled steel products (the goods described in that notice (the goods)), exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China).¹

Consequently, I DIRECT, pursuant to section 10(3B) of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (the Dumping Duty Act), that the interim countervailing duty payable on the goods is an amount worked out as a proportion of the export price of those particular goods.

In relation to Baoshan Iron and Steel Co., Ltd (Baoshan) from China, pursuant to section 10(3DA) of the Dumping Duty Act, I am not required to have regard to the desirability of fixing a lesser amount of duty. This is because the normal value of the goods for Baoshan was not ascertained under section 269TAC(1) of the Act because of the operation of section 269TAC(2)(a)(ii) of the Act.

In relation to all other exporters from China (except for Baoshan, Baosteel Zhanjiang Iron and Steel Co., Ltd and Hunan Valin Lian Yuan Iron and Steel Co., Ltd), pursuant to section 10(3D) of the Dumping Duty Act, I have had regard to the desirability of fixing the amount of interim countervailing duty such that the sum of:

- (i) the export price of goods of that kind, as ascertained, or last ascertained; and
- (ii) that amount of the interim countervailing duty as so fixed; and
- (iii) the amount of interim dumping duty as fixed under section 8 of the Dumping Duty Act;

does not exceed the non-injurious price of goods of that kind as ascertained, or last ascertained, for the purposes of those notices. For all other exporters from China, these amounts do not exceed the non-injurious price. Therefore, a lesser amount of duty has not been applied.

This notice applies to the goods and like goods entered for home consumption as per my declaration in ADN 2026/104 under section 269TJ of the Act and to which section 10 of the Dumping Duty Act applies.
