

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2018/190

Aluminium extrusions

Exported from the People's Republic of China

Further extension of time granted to issue the Statement of Essential Facts and the Final Report in relation to Review of Anti-Dumping Measures No. 482

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 12 July 2018, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of a review of anti-dumping measures, in the form of a dumping duty notice and a countervailing duty notice, in respect of aluminium extrusions (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China) as they affect exporters of those goods generally.

A full description of the goods is available in that notice, Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2018/111 (initiation notice). The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) would be placed on the public record on or before 30 October 2018. The initiation notice also advised that a recommendation to the then Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science (the Assistant Minister) would be made in a final report on or before 14 December 2018.

The Commission has since published a notice (ADN No. 2018/138) confirming an extension of time to publish the SEF and to provide the final report to the Minister. ADN No. 2018/138 advised that the SEF would be placed on the public record no later than 13 January 2019, with a recommendation to the Minister made in a final report on or before 27 February 2019.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the *Customs Act 1901*¹, further extended the deadline to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister, as examination of issues surrounding the revocation request are taking a greater amount of time than anticipated. The SEF will now be placed on the public record no later than 22 February 2019. Interested parties are invited to make submissions in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

A recommendation to the Minister will now be made in a report due on or before 8 April 2019.

Documents included in the public record may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.
