Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 16 July 2018, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) initiated an inquiry into whether the continuation of the anti-dumping measures in respect of certain wind towers (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Korea is justified.

The background to the initiation of this inquiry is contained in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2018/115. The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) for the investigation would be placed on the public record on or before 3 November 2018.¹ The initiation notice also advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report on or before 18 December 2018.

The Commission requires further time to finalise the verification of information provided by interested parties and to undertake further analysis of the Australian market for wind towers for the purposes of determining whether the anti-dumping measures should be continued.

I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Anti-Dumping Commission², requested an extension of time under subsections 269ZHI(1)(f) and 269ZHI(1)(g) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) to the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF, and for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister in relation to the inquiry.

¹ As this is a Saturday, the effective due date for the publication of the SEF is the following business day (5 November 2018).

² On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Act to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 for further information.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Act,³ extended the deadline to publish the SEF and to provide his final report and recommendations.

The SEF will now be placed on the public record no later than 25 January 2019. The Commissioner's recommendation will now be made in a report due on or before 11 March 2019.⁴
