ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2019/52

Aluminum extrusions

Exported from the People's Republic of China

Extension of time granted to issue the Statement of Essential Facts and the Final Report in relation to a Review of Anti-Dumping Measures No. 497

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 15 January 2019, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of a review of anti-dumping measures, in the form of a dumping duty notice, in respect of aluminium extrusions exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China). The review is limited to examining whether the variable factors relevant to the taking of the anti-dumping measures as they affect Guangdong Huachang Aluminium Factory Co., Ltd (Huachang) from China should be varied.

A full description of the goods is available in that notice, Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2019/006 (initiation notice). The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) would be placed on the public record on or before 6 May 2019.<sup>1</sup> The initiation notice also advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report on or before 19 June 2019.

Due to resourcing constraints, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Anti-Dumping Commission, requested an extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The legislated due date is 5 May 2019; however as this falls on a Sunday, the effective due date is the following working day, being 6 May 2019.

<sup>2</sup> On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Customs Act 1901 to the General Managers of the Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 for further information.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901,<sup>3</sup> extended the deadline to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister. The SEF will now be placed on the public record on or before 5 July 2019. Interested parties are invited to make submissions to the Commissioner in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

A recommendation to the Minister will now be made in a report due on or before 19 August 2019.

Documents included in the public record may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number +61 3 8539 2469 or at ADCQualityAssurance.&VerificationTeam@adcommission.gov.au.
