

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2020/46

Hot rolled coil steel exported from Taiwan

Extension of time granted to issue the Statement of Essential Facts and the Final Report in relation to a Review of Anti-Dumping Measures No. 528

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 18 October 2019, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of a review of anti-dumping measures, in the form of a dumping duty notice, in respect of hot rolled coil steel (the goods) exported to Australia from Taiwan as they affect exporters of those goods generally. A full description of the goods is available in that notice, Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2019/128 (initiation notice).

The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) would be placed on the public record on or before 5 February 2020. The initiation notice also advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report on or before 23 March 2020.

As advised in ADN No. 2020/004,¹ the Commissioner has previously extended these deadlines. The SEF is currently due to be placed on the public record on or before 5 May 2020, and a recommendation provided to the Minister in a report on or before 19 June 2020.

Due to additional delays that have occurred in undertaking the Commission's verification activities, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Anti-Dumping Commission requested a further extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister.²

² On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZH1 of the Customs Act 1901 to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 on the Commission website for further information.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901,³ extended the deadline to publish the SEF, and provide his final report and recommendation.

The SEF will now be placed on the public record on or before 4 July 2020.⁴ Interested parties are invited to make submissions to the Commissioner in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record. A recommendation to the Minister will now be made in a report due on or before 18 August 2020.

Documents included in the public record may be examined at the Commission office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number 03 9268 7969 or at investigations1@adcommission.gov.au.
