Dear Colleagues

Re: APPLICATION BY CAPRAL TO THE ANTI-DUMPING COMMISSION

I am retained by Bradnams Windows and Doors Pty Ltd ("Bradnams").

Capral has recently submitted an application to the Anti-Dumping Commission in relation to Aluminium extrusions.

At Example E (p 30), Capral states: "Capral has lost approximately XXX tonnes of supply at Bradnams to imports from Malaysia".

Bradnams' objections are as follows:

1. The name of Bradnams should have been redacted in Capral's submission.
2. Capral's submission states that Bradnams: "...has been sourcing LB Aluminium product in late 2018 and 2019...".

Bradnams categorically rejects this allegation. It contains not a scintilla of truth. Bradnams has not at any time imported any aluminium extrusions either from LB Aluminium or indeed any other Malaysian manufacturer of aluminium extrusions. Further, Bradnams is concerned that some of its customers may believe this allegation and give preference to fabricators using Australian made aluminium extrusions. As a result, they may decide to source their requirements from Bradnams' competitors mistakenly believing that in this way they are helping Australian industry.

In fact, Bradnams sources a large proportion of its aluminium extrusions from an alternative Australian competitor of Capral who provides a better overall service and supply package.

In the circumstances, I am instructed to request that Capral publish a retraction of its allegations about Bradnams and an apology to be published on the Commission's website in the same way as the investigation document was published.

Kind regards
