On 24 February 2020, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of a review of the anti-dumping measures applying to certain aluminium extrusions (the goods) exported to Australia from Malaysia and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam). The anti-dumping measures are in the form of a dumping duty notice (Malaysia and Vietnam) and a countervailing duty notice (Malaysia only).¹

A full description of the goods is available in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2020/014 (initiation notice). The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commission) website at: www.adcommission.gov.au

The initiation notice advised that the statement of essential facts (SEF) would be placed on the public record on, or before, 15 June 2020.² The initiation notice also advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report on, or before, 28 July 2020.

As advised in ADN No. 2020/114, the Commissioner has previously extended this deadline. The SEF is currently due to be placed on the public record on, or before, 10 November 2020, and a recommendation provided to the Minister in a report on, or before, 13 January 2021.

To provide further time to complete the verification phase of the review and have full consideration of the available information in preparing the SEF, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager, Investigations of the Anti-Dumping Commission, requested an extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to publish the SEF and provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister.³

¹ It is noted that certain exporters are not subject to the measures in relation to Malaysia. Further details are available at www.adcommission.gov.au

² The due date was 13 June 2020. However, as this date falls on a Saturday, the effective due date is the following business day.

³ The Commissioner sub-delegated the power to grant extensions of time under section 269ZH1 of the Customs Act 1901 to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See ADN No. 2017/10 on the Commission's website for further information.
