

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2020/141

Steel rod in coil

Exported from the People's Republic of China

Findings in Relation to Review of Anti-Dumping Measures No. 564

Notice under section 269ZDB(1) of the Customs Act 1901

The Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission has completed a review, which commenced on 27 July 2020, of the anti-dumping measures applying to steel rod in coil (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China).

Recommendations resulting from that review, reasons for the recommendations and material findings of fact and law in relation to the review are contained in Anti-Dumping Commission Report No. 564 (REP 564).

I, KAREN ANDREWS, the Minister for Industry, Science, and Technology have considered REP 564 and have decided to accept the recommendations and reasons for the recommendations, including all the material findings of facts or law set out in REP 564.

Under section 269ZDB(1)(a)(iii) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act), I declare that, for the purposes of the Act and the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 (Dumping Duty Act), that, with effect from the date of publication of this notice the dumping duty notice currently applying to the goods exported to Australia from China is to be taken to have effect as if different variable factors had been fixed in respect of exporters generally, relevant to the determination of duty.

The duty that has been determined is an amount worked out in accordance with the combination of fixed and variable duty method as detailed in the table below.

Particulars of the dumping margin established for all exporters generally are set out in the following table.

Exporter/country	Dumping margin	Duty method
All exporters - China	33.1%	Combination of fixed and variable duty method

The actual duty liability may be higher than the effective rate of duty due to a number of factors. Affected parties should contact the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission) on telephone number 132 846 or +61 2 6213 6000, or at clientsupport@adcommission.gov.au for further information regarding the actual duty liability calculation in their particular circumstance.

To preserve confidentiality, details of the revised variable factors such as Ascertained Export Price (AEP) and Normal Value and Non-Injurious Price (NIP) will not be published.

Interested parties may seek a review of this decision by lodging an application with the Anti-Dumping Review Panel (www.adreviewpanel.gov.au) in accordance with the requirements in Division 9 of Part XVB of the Act, within 30 days of the publication of this notice.
