

Zhejiang Pricing Catalogue (2018 edition)

No.	Pricing item	Pricing content	Pricing department	Note
1	Electricity	On-grid tariffs for power generation companies dispatched by power grids below the provincial level, as well as power transmission and distribution prices and sales prices for power grids below the provincial level	Provincial Price Authority	On-grid electricity prices and sales electricity prices do not include prices formed through market competition such as direct electricity trading and bidding pricing
2	Gas	Provincial-level natural gas pipeline network provides sales prices for urban gas companies and gas power plants	Provincial Price Authority
		Provincial-level natural gas pipeline network provides sales prices for urban gas companies and gas power plants	Authorize the city and county people's government	Except for large users and vehicle gas
3	Water supply and drainage	Water supply price of water conservancy projects in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	Except for the water conservancy project built by the user for self-use and the part where the supplier and the demander have negotiated the pricing through agreement
		The price of tap water supplied by urban and rural public pipe networks in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	Except for tap water built and managed by rural villagers
		Sewage treatment charges in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government

4	Transportation	Car and boat tolls	Government loan tolls for highways (including bridges and tunnels)	The provincial transportation department together with the provincial price department and the provincial finance department	Report to the provincial people's government for review and approval
			Tolls for operating highways (including bridges and tunnels)	Provincial transportation department together with provincial price department
			Ship lock clearance fee	Provincial price department together with provincial transportation department
		Road transport price	Passenger fares, fuel surcharges for inter-city within province shuttles on some roads in the province (except for shuttles along the high-speed rail), inter-city rail transit rates	Provincial price department together with provincial transportation department
			Shuttle passenger transportation rates in part in-city trans-county and trans-district road, fuel surcharges (except shuttles along the high-speed rail), and intercity rail transportation rates within city	Authorize the Municipal People's Government
			Passenger fares on rural roads in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government

		City transportation price	Public transportation fares within the jurisdiction (including urban and rural buses, subways, and island ferry)	Authorize the city and county people's government
			Basic fare and fuel (gas) surcharge for passenger taxis within the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	Except for online booked taxi
			Service charges for parking facilities with natural monopoly operation and public welfare characteristics in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	The pricing scope includes public parking spaces on urban roads, parking lots at traffic stations, supporting parking lots for public hospitals and sports venues, and motor vehicle parking services in public parking lots invested by the government.
		Civil aviation service charges	Hangzhou Xiaoshan International Airport passenger pick-up fee, ground parking lot in front of the terminal	Provincial Price Authority
			Passenger transfer and parking fees at Ningbo, Wenzhou and Yiwu International Airports	Authorize the Municipal People's Government
		Pipeline transportation price	Inter-city within province pipeline transportation price in the province (including gasification service price of imported LNG receiving stations)	Provincial Price Authority
			The price of short-distance pipeline transportation in the city	Authorize the Municipal People's Government
		5	Environmental protection	Hazardous waste disposal charges	Authorize the Municipal People's Government
				Charges for disposal of domestic waste (excluding construction waste) in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's	Except for prices determined by village collective organizations

			government
		Paid use price of pollution rights	Provincial Price Authority	The pricing range is for coal-fired power generation companies with a total installed capacity of more than 300,000 kilowatts
			Authorize the city and county people's government	The pricing range is the paid use price of pollution rights outside the provincial pricing within the jurisdiction
6	Education	Public academic education (higher education, provincial ordinary high school, secondary vocational education) fees, provincial public kindergartens	The provincial price department together with the provincial financial department and the provincial education department	Including Sino-foreign cooperative education
		Fees for public academic education (general high school, secondary vocational education) and public kindergartens other than the provincial pricing in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	Including Sino-foreign cooperative education
		Non-profit private academic education (higher education, provincial ordinary primary and secondary schools, secondary vocational education) fees	Provincial price department together with provincial education department	Including Sino-foreign cooperative education
		Charges for non-profit private academic education (general primary and secondary schools, secondary vocational education) beyond the provincial pricing in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government	Including Sino-foreign cooperative education

		The unit price and retail price of the printed sheets of textbooks listed in the primary and secondary school teaching book catalog issued by the provincial education authority and the printed supplementary materials listed in the provincial primary and secondary school evaluation announcements	Provincial pricing department together with provincial publishing administrative department
7	Medical service	The price of basic medical services provided by public medical institutions	The provincial price department together with the provincial health department and the provincial human resources and social security department	The pricing scope is basic medical services provided by provincial public medical institutions
			Authorize the Municipal People's Government	The pricing scope is basic medical services provided by public medical institutions other than provincial pricing
8	Elderly service	Charges for basic services of public elderly care institutions in the jurisdiction (beds and nursing fees)	Authorize the city and county people's government
9	Funeral Service	Basic service charges provided by funeral service agencies in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government
		Use of public cemeteries (including ashes depository) and rural public cemeteries (including ashes deposits) within the jurisdiction and related service charges	Authorize the city and county people's government

10	Cultural Tourism	Cable digital TV	Charges for basic services of digital cable TV for residents	Provincial Price Authority
		Scenic spot	Ticket prices and supporting transportation service charges for scenic spots (visiting spots) constructed using public resources within the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government
		Public sports facilities	Service charges for public sports facilities listed in the directory of public sports facilities in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government
11	Affordable housing and property services	Sales price of affordable housing and rent of public rental housing in the jurisdiction		Authorize the city and county people's government
		Early-stage property charges for ordinary housing in the municipal area		Authorize the Municipal People's Government
12	Important professional services	Judicial service charges		Provincial price department together with provincial judicial administrative department	The pricing scope includes basic services of notary agencies, basic appraisal services of judicial appraisal agencies, law firms and grassroots legal service agencies to provide criminal defense agency and some civil litigation, administrative litigation, public interest group litigation, and state compensation case agency services
		Highway rescue service charges		Provincial Price

	Authority
Some special facilities and equipment safety production testing service charges	Provincial Price Authority
Monopoly trading platform fees	Provincial Price Authority	The pricing scope covers engineering construction projects and mining rights transactions on provincial public resource trading platforms
	Authorize the Municipal People's Government	The pricing scope covers the transactions of engineering construction projects, mining rights, and state-owned assets (property management rights) on municipal public resource trading platforms
Service charges related to the main business provided by public utility business units within the jurisdiction that have an industry or technology monopoly	Authorize the city and county people's government	The pricing scope covers the services provided by power supply, water supply and drainage, gas supply and other departments (including embedded or modified)
Charges for designated slaughter of pigs in the jurisdiction	Authorize the city and county people's government

Note: 1. This pricing catalog does not include the content of central pricing items. All pricing items and pricing content that involve central pricing (National Development and Reform Commission and relevant departments of the State Council) in the province will be implemented in accordance with the central pricing catalog.

2. The pricing content included in this catalog includes the specific prices of the pricing items, charging standards, benchmark prices and their floating ranges, as well as related pricing mechanisms, methods, and rules.

3. Laws and administrative regulations clearly stipulate that projects that implement government pricing and government-guided prices will automatically enter this catalog; laws and administrative regulations clearly specify that projects that implement market-adjusted prices will automatically exit this catalog.

4. The city referred to in this pricing catalog refers to cities divided into districts and Yiwu City, and counties refer to counties and county-level cities; districts refer to cities and county-level administrative regions; the people's governments of municipal districts are authorized to implement part of the pricing authority of this pricing catalog , Which will be separately issued by the provincial price authority based on this pricing catalog.

5. The people's governments of cities, counties, and districts formulate government-guided prices and government-set prices to be implemented in their respective regions, and the competent price departments or relevant departments of the government at the same level are responsible for the specific work.

6. Refined oil prices, motor vehicle inspection and inspection service charges, electric vehicle charging and replacement service charges, and administrative charges are managed in accordance with relevant national regulations.

7. The people's governments of cities, counties, and districts may, in accordance with the process of price reforms and local conditions, conduct pilot projects to liberalize the above-mentioned government pricing projects in their jurisdictions, and implement them after the approval of the provincial people's government.