Customs Act 1901

Notice under section 269ZZM(4)

Reconsideration of Review No.55A – A4 Copy Paper Exported from China
by UPM Asia Pacific

The Anti-Dumping Review Panel (ADRP) has completed a reconsideration of the decision by the former Assistant Minister of Industry, Innovation and Science to publish a notice under subsections 269TG(1) & (2) of the Customs Act 1901 in respect of A4 Copy Paper Exported from the People's Republic of China (the Reviewable Decision). The Reviewable Decision was published on the Anti-Dumping Commission (ADC) website on 19 April 2017 (ADN 2017/39).

Goods subject to the reconsideration were those exported from the People's Republic of China by UPM Asia Pacific Pte Ltd (UPM-AP).

The ADRP recommended the Review following orders from the Federal Court that the decision made by the former Assistant Minister following recommendations by the ADRP in relation to UPM-AP be set aside and the matter be remitted to the ADRP.

A copy of the applications and the ADRP's report to me (ADRP Report No 55A) are available on the ADRP website www.adreviewpanel.gov.au.

The ADRP has recommended that the Reviewable Decision as it relates to UPM-AP be revoked and substituted with a new decision that is in the same terms as the Reviewable Decision, except that:

- The export price for UPM-AP is increased, resulting in a dumping margin for UPM-AP of 4%

This decision does not disturb the findings subject of ADRP Review 55 or notice published on 9 March 2018 in relation to goods exported other than by UPM-AP.

I, KAREN ANDREWS, Minister for Industry, Science and Technology have considered and accepted the recommendations, and reasons for the recommendations, made by the ADRP in ADRP Report No 55A, including all material findings of fact or law as set out in ADRP Report No 55A.

Therefore, in accordance with section 269ZZM(1)(b) of the Customs Act 1901, I revoke the reviewable decision in so far as it relates to UPM-AP and substitute new decisions as recommended by the ADRP. The substituted decision is to have effect from the date of the reviewable decision.

Interested parties may seek a review of this decision by lodging an application with the Federal Court of Australia, in accordance with the requirements in the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, within 28 days of the publication of this notice.

The Hon Karen Andrews MP
Minister for Industry, Science and Technology
