Customs Act 1901

Notice under section 269ZZM(4)

Power Transformers Exported to Australia from the Republic of Indonesia by PT CG Power Systems, Indonesia

The Anti-Dumping Review Panel (“ADRP”) has completed a review of a decision by the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science to publish a notice under section 269ZDB(1)(a)(iii) of the Customs Act 1901 in relation to Power Transformers Exported to Australia from the Republic of Indonesia by PT CG Power Systems, Indonesia (CG Power), (“the Reviewable Decision”). The Reviewable Decision was published on the Anti-Dumping Commission (“ADC”) website on 6 June 2017.

An application for review was made by CG Power. A copy of the application and the ADRP’s report to me (“ADRP Report No 60”) are available on the ADRP website - www.adreviewpanel.gov.au.

The ADRP has recommended that I:

- Revoke the Reviewable Decision and substitute a new decision varying the variable factors relevant to the determination of duty.

I, CRAIG LAUNDY, Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science and Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science, have considered and accepted the recommendations, and reasons for the recommendations, made by the ADRP in ADRP Report No 60, including all material findings of fact or law as set out in ADRP Report No 60.

Therefore, in accordance with section 269ZZM(1)(b) of the Customs Act 1901 and with effect from 6 June 2017, I revoke the Reviewable Decision and substitute a new decision in the same terms as the Reviewable Decision except that different variable factors as identified in ADRP Report 60 apply in determining the dumping duty for goods subject to the Reviewable Decision. As a result of the different variable factors the dumping margin for CG Power is 28.3%.

Interested parties may seek a review of this decision by lodging an application with the Federal Court of Australia, in accordance with the requirements in the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, within 28 days of the publication of this notice.
