The Anti-Dumping Review Panel (ADRP) has completed a review of a decision made by the former Minister for Industry, Science and Technology under subsection 269ZHG(1)(b) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) in respect of Grinding Balls exported from the People's Republic of China (China) (the Reviewable Decision). The Reviewable Decision was published on the Anti-Dumping Commission (ADC) website on 8 September 2021 (ADN 2021/95).

Applications for review of the Reviewable Decision were made by Jiangyin Xingcheng Magotteaux Steel Balls Co., Ltd, Changshu Longte Grinding Balls Co Ltd and Compania Electro Metalurgica S.A. A copy of the applications are available on the ADRP website at www.adreviewpanel.gov.au.

On 24 December 2021, the ADRP made its report to the former Minister for Industry, Energy and Emissions Reduction (ADRP Report No 141). A copy of this report is available on the ADRP website. Any confidential information contained in ADRP Report No 141 has been removed from the version available on the ADRP website. If your confidential information forms part of ADRP Report No 141, you can request a copy of the report containing your confidential information from the ADRP Secretariat via the details available on the ADRP website.

The ADRP has recommended that the Reviewable Decision be revoked and substituted with a new specified decision under s.269ZHG(1)(a) of the Act declaring that I have decided not to secure the continuation of the anti-dumping measures applying to Grinding Balls exported from China.

I, ED HUSIC, Minister for Industry and Science have considered and accepted the recommendations, and reasons for the recommendations, made by the ADRP in ADRP Report No 141, including all material findings of fact or law as set out in ADRP Report No 141.

Therefore, in accordance with section 269ZZM(1)(b) of the Act, I revoke the Reviewable Decision and substitute a new decision as recommend by the ADRP. The substituted decision is to take effect on 8 September 2021, meaning that the anti-dumping measures expire on 9 September 2021.

Applications for review of this decision under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 should be made to the Federal Court of Australia within 28 days of:

- The publication of this notice and ADRP Report No 141; or
- If the public version of the ADRP Report No 141 contains any redactions to remove your confidential information, such later date on which you receive a copy of ADRP Report No 141 without your confidential information redacted.
