The Anti-Dumping Review Panel (Panel) has completed its review of my decision under section 269ZDBH(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act) in respect of hollow structural sections (the goods) exported from the People's Republic of China, the Republic of Korea, Malaysia and Taiwan (the Decision). The Decision was published on the Australian Trade Remedies Commission (formerly known as the Anti-Dumping Commission) website on 5 June 2026 (ADN 2026/064).

The following parties applied for review of the Decision:

- Gransolar Construction Australia Pty Ltd, and
- Nextpower Australia Pty Ltd

Copies of the applications are available on the Panel website at www.adreviewpanel.gov.au.

On 6 October 2026, the Panel made its report to me (Report No 182). A public version of Report No 182, with confidential information removed, is available on the Panel's website. A party whose confidential information has been redacted may request an unredacted copy containing its own confidential information from the Panel Secretariat using the contact details on the Panel's website.

The Panel has recommended that the Decision be revoked and substituted with a new decision to declare that the dumping and countervailing duty notices remain unaltered.

I, Senator the Hon Tim Ayres, Minister for Industry and Innovation and Minister for Science have considered and accepted the recommendations, and reasons for the recommendations, made by the Panel in Report No 182, including all material findings of fact or law as set out in Report No 182.

Therefore, in accordance with section 269ZZM(1)(a) of the Act, I revoke the Decision and substitute a new decision as recommended by the Panel. The decision is to have effect from the effective date specified in ADN 2026/064.

Applications for review of this decision under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 should be made to the Federal Court of Australia within 28 days of:

- The publication of this notice and Report No 182; or
- If the public version of Report No 182 contains any redactions to remove your confidential information, such later date on which you receive a copy of Report No 182 with your confidential information unredacted.
