Dear Mr Tuckwell

Prepared or preserved tomatoes from Italy

I refer to your letter dated 13 August 2014 received by the Anti-Dumping Review Panel on 18 August 2014.

A number of interested parties have put to me that there should be a further round of submissions after the re-investigation by the Anti-Dumping Commission has been completed. This would allow interested parties to respond to any further or different findings made by the Commission.

I have reviewed the arguments put forward and I am grateful to those who addressed the legislative provisions, subsection 269ZZK(4) and (4A) of the Customs Act. However, I have come to the view that the legislation does not give a Panel member discretion to allow further submissions beyond those made pursuant to section 269ZZJ. Detailed reasons for this view will be provided with the report to the Parliamentary Secretary.

Yours truly

Ms Joan Fitzhenry
