

Reconsideration of ADRP Review No. 55: A4 Copy Paper exported from the People's Republic of China by UPM Asia Pacific Pte Ltd

On 8 October 2018, the Federal Court ordered, by consent of the parties, that the decisions of the Assistant Minister for Science, Jobs and Innovation and the Anti-Dumping Review Panel (Review Panel) be set aside in relation to exports of A4 copy paper exported by UPM Asia Pacific Pte Ltd (UPM AP) and the matter be remitted to the Review Panel for reconsideration in accordance with law. A copy of the consent orders (file number NSD532/2018) are available on the Review Panel website.

The Review Panel's reconsideration will be conducted in accordance with its powers as outlined in Division 9 of Part XVB (Review by Review Panel) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act). Please note that for the purposes of the reconsideration of this review:

- Conferences may be held in accordance with s.269ZZHA of the Act;
- The Review Panel can have regard to further information obtained through a conference pursuant to s 269ZZHA to the extent that it relates to relevant information (which is defined in s 269ZZK of the Act). It can also have regard to conclusions based on relevant information.
- Written submissions will not be accepted by the Review Panel in relation to this reconsideration of the reviewable decision.
- A non-confidential summary of any conferences convened under s.269ZZHA of the Act will be placed on the Review Panel's website;
- The Review Panel intends to finalise its report to the Minister within 30 days of the date that the summary of the conference held with UPM AP, Fuji Xerox Australia and the Anti-Dumping Commission is placed on the Review Panel website;
- The Review Panel's report will be given to the Minister as required by s.269ZZK of the Act; and
- The Review Panel's report will be published on the Review Panel's website after the Minister's decision is made.

The goods to which this review relates are:

uncoated white paper of a type used for writing, printing and other graphic purposes, in the nominal basis weight range of 70 to 100 gsm and cut to sheets of metric size A4 (210mm x 297mm) (also commonly referred to as cut sheet paper, copy paper, office paper or laser paper).

The reviewable decision being reconsidered relates to exports of A4 copy paper by UPM AP from the People's Republic of China.
