TRADE REMEDIES NOTICE No. 2026/143

Continuation Inquiry No. 710 in relation to Hollow Structural Sections

Exported from Malaysia, Taiwan, the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Korea

Extension of time granted to issue the Statement of Essential Facts and Final Report

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

The Commissioner of the Trade Remedies Commission has extended the due date to publish the Statement of Essential Facts (SEF) and provide the final report and recommendation to the Minister about the above case.¹

New milestone dates

SEF – The SEF is now due to be placed on the public record on, or before, 31 March 2027.

Response to SEF – Interested parties are invited to make submissions in response to the SEF within 20 days of the SEF being placed on the public record.

Final Report – A recommendation to the Minister will be made in a final report which is now due on, or before, 25 May 2027.

The previous due date for the SEF was 21 November 2026. The previous due date for the final report was 05 January 2027.

¹ They do so under section 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901. On 19 January 2017, the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science delegated the powers and functions of the Minister under section 269ZHI of the Act to the Commissioner. See Anti-Dumping Notice 2017/10 for further information.

Basis for extension

I, Isolde Lueckenhausen, am the Deputy Commissioner Investigations, Australian Trade Remedies Commission (the commission). I requested the extension of the due date to publish the SEF and to provide the final report and recommendation to the Minister.

I requested the extension to allow time for the commission to gather and analyse further information.
