Customs Act 1901 (Cth) – Part XVB

Hot rolled coil steel

Exported from Taiwan

Expiry of anti-dumping measures

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

Notice under subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth)

I, David Latina, Commissioner of the Australian Trade Remedies Commission, in accordance with subsection 269ZHB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) (the Act),[1] advise that the trade remedies measures (the measures) on Hot rolled coil steel (the goods), exported to Australia from Taiwan, are due to expire on 20 December 2027.

The measures were initially imposed by public notice in the form of a dumping duty notice on 20 December 2012 by the then Minister for Home Affairs following consideration of Customs and Border Protection's Final Report No 188. [2]

The measures were last continued in 2022 following consideration of Findings of Continuation Inquiry Report No 594 by then Minister for Industry and Science.[3]

Those persons specified in section 269ZHB(1)(b) of the Act are invited to apply for a continuation of the measures. The application must be in writing, be in the form approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of section 269ZHC, contain such information that the form requires, be signed in the manner indicated in the form, and be lodged in the manner approved under section 269SMS. Applications must be lodged by 5:00pm (AEST or AEDST) 5 January 2027.

The application must provide evidence addressing whether there appear to be reasonable grounds for asserting that the expiration of the measures to which the application relates might lead, or might be likely to lead, to a continuation of, or a recurrence of, the material injury that the measures are intended to prevent.[4]

[2] Further details of the measures can be found on the Dumping Commodity Register and the Anti-Dumping Commission's website.
[3] Further details of the measures can be found on the Dumping Commodity Register and the Anti-Dumping Commission's website.
[4] Section 269ZHD(2)(b) of the Act.

If an application is received that complies with the prescribed requirements and I decide not to reject that application, I will publish a notice on the Australian Trade Remedies Commission website indicating that it is proposed to inquire whether continuation of the measures is justified. I will undertake an inquiry and report my recommendation to the Minister for Industry and Innovation and Minister for Science within 155 days of publication of the notice advising commencement of the inquiry (or such longer period as allowed in accordance with section 269ZHI of the Act).

If no application is received by 5 January 2027, the measures applying to the goods, exported to Australia from Korea will expire on 20 December 2027. Therefore, on and from 21 December 2027, the measures would no longer apply.
